WHAT IS LIP

HWNT Fort Worth's esteemed education series, Latinas In Progress, collaborates with area universities and colleges to motivate graduating high school seniors towards achieving their dreams of a college degree. The program acclimates participants and their parents with the rigors of college, engages them in workshops such as College 101, writing skills, life skills, assertiveness training, and civic engagement. LIP helps develop networks, social skills, confidence, and increase their community involvement by volunteering at community events. The program culminates in scholarship opportunities for students. # WHAT IS ¡HASTA LOS MUERTOS BAILAN!

Our Annual ¡Hasta Los Muertos Bailan! Gala, which translates to "Even the Dead Dance," celebrates the Day of the Dead Mexican holiday where deceased loved ones are remembered each year. The gala includes a cocktail social, auctions, dinner, and dancing to live music. Festive traditions such as an altar for loved ones, sugar skull face-painting, and mariachi music make it a truly unique event. Sponsors of the event play the biggest role in its success. Funds raised at this annual gala benefit HWNT Fort Worth LIP education program and the development of our chapter. www.hwntfw.org/events
